Elk Point lobbies for post office

A delegation from Elk Point visited Member of Parliament Don Mazankowski in Vegreville last Friday, to lobby for improvements to the Elk Point Post Office.

Mayor Ed Buck, Administrator Pat Vincent, Councillor Bruce Kleeberger and Chamber of Commerce representative Sid Holthe made up the delegation; which told Mazankowski that there are presently 145 box applications on file and that there is a five year wait, based on current availability. In addition, 42 post office boxes contain the mail for two or more householders, while an estimated four hundred customers receive mail through General Delivery.

As a distribution point for the postal services in Heinsburg, Lindbergh, Frog Lake, Tullibury Lake and Sputinow, Elk Point is also receiving an increased demand on services resulting from increased growth in these areas.

The Elk Point Post Office has been considered inadequate since 1979, when a report listing a number of problems was presented to the government. Elk Point was put on a 'Building Program' list at that time, but no changes have been forthcoming.

The delegation told Mazankowski that last year's Elk Point and District Impact Assessment Study has shown a long period of growth for the community, with up to 2½ times the present population within 15 years.

In closing, the Elk Point group asked that a building program be initiated as soon as possible to ensure meeting the needs of the rapidly growing community.

Councillor Kleeberger told Council Monday night that the presentation had been "very well received" by the Member of Parliament. Mazankowski indicated that he will have a study done on the present conditions and will present the results to the Minister.

FINISHING TOUCHES — A large double culvert is installed on 49 Avenue between the Curling Club and Fort George Manor, as warmer weather permitted some of the water line installation work to be completed.

Hospital Board meets with MLA

The Elk Point Municipal Hospital Board has met with our MLA, Mr. John Drobot to discuss a request made to the Department of Hospital for the addition of long term care beds to our hospital.

In 1980 the Board submitted a project request to the Minister of Health for the addition of 40 Nursing Home beds to our existing facility. The Minister responded that our request had been put on hold due to financial restraints imposed by Government.

Several problems have surfaced in the last several years due to the increase of oil activity in our Hospital District. The Main concerns are the need for more physicians in our district and the shortage of both acute care and long term care beds. Both the Medical staff and the Board recognize these problems and are attempting to solve them.

The Medical Staff are actively recruiting for more Doctors with the probable increase of one or more physician in the next year.

The Board on the other hand is attempting to get Long Term Care beds (Auxiliary & Nursing Home) so that we can re-designate our auxiliary beds to active treatment. This would increase our total adult beds and will be necessary if we get more physicians.

The Board is now in the midst of renovating the nurses residence into a medical clinic. This will help with physician recruitment as it will be able to accommodate several doctors.

The Board is arranging for another meeting with Mr. Drobot to emphasize the urgency of our concerns and attempt to arrange a meeting with the Honorable Dave Russel, Minister of Health.

Christmas hours set

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce Retail Merchant's Committee Chairman Rodger McLaughlin announced this year's extended Christmas Shopping hours at last Wednesday's meeting.

The stores will be open from 9 a.m. until 9 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 19th; Friday, Dec. 20th and Monday, Dec. 23rd. They will close at 5 p.m. on both Christmas Eve, Tuesday, Dec. 24th and New Year's Eve, Tuesday, Dec. 31st. The stores will be closed on Thursday, Dec. 26th, but will be open on Thursday, Jan. 2nd, 1986.

McLaughlin reported that all is in readiness for the giant Christmas promotion, with sufficient funds collected from 80 local businesses to offer a total of $1,300 in prizes.

Twenty five of the participating businesses will also have in-house draws.

Vouchers for $400, $300, and three $200 in value will be given out, which will be valid only in Elk Point, for merchandise from any of the participating businesses. The vouchers will be good until January 31, and will have a method by which the value of each purchase can be deducted from the total value.

Name of the promotion will be the "Elk Point Merry Christmas Extravaganza".

Turning to other Chamber business, President Murray Harper noted that MLA John Drobot has requested that the Chamber provide three alternate dates in April for the official opening of the Elk Point Bridge. The Chamber has been asked to host the opening.

It was suggested that June 7 would be the most appropriate date for the opening, that being the anniversary of the opening of the old bridge. This will be relayed to the MLA's office along with the April dates. The Nominations Committee will set up a committee to plan the opening.

Sid Holthe volunteered to represent the Chamber at Friday's meeting with the Member of Parliament Don Mazankowski to lobby for post office improvements and expansion.

Tourism Chairman Ron Barwick suggested that a group from the Chamber accompany him to the

Birthday Club holds Christmas party

By Irene Magnusson

Nine members met at the home of Muriel Holthe, December 6th, for a long-awaited Birthday Party, combined with the annual Christmas Pie. One of the Birthday Girls for the occasion was Mrs. Grace Franks, who will reach the venerable age of 90 years this month. Grace is one of whom it may be truly said "years young" rather than "years old", and remains young-at-heart.

Mrs. Elsie Babcock is the other birthday celebrant. At role call it was noted that two members are in hospital, Mrs. Ada Scott and Mrs. Grace Lien. All hope they will soon be home.

Rather than the usual games, Pres.-Sec. Marian Smith read a couple of poems; "Things Come Right," followed by "The Night Before Christmas" parody, showing the results of the trend to heavy drinking at this time of year. This lead to a spirited discussion and unanimous agreement on the evils of too much alcohol consumption combined with driving.

Violet McFadyen then read "At Day's End," by John Hall, the philosophical "It Isn't the Town, It's You," (anonymous) and "When Friends Walk by our Side."

The mood was jolly, and a few jokes were heard. Mrs. Franks said the old story of how 'Life begins at 40' could be changed to 'Life Begins at 90' or even later.

Since all the members are probably '60 or Better' this observation was encouraging.

Elsie Babcock won the 5th raffle, a stand-by of Birthday Club parties, a lovely box of note paper. All members had brought wrapped gifts, with strings attached. These were placed in a basket members pulled a string, and received their gift.

Mrs. Holthe, in addition to the usual Birthday Cake fare, offered fruit cake and mincemeat tarts, all served in a Christmas setting, and the ladies all had a jolly good time. The January party will be at Mrs. Kate Arnold's home, weather permitting.

December meeting of the Lakeland Tourist Association in Innisfree, as a worthy promotion of Elk Point.

FCSS Director Marie Buck invited the Chamber members to that Department's open house on the afternoon of December 19.

Recreation Director, Linda Simpson, outlined her department's latest activities, and asked that names of worthy volunteers in Elk Point be submitted to the Chamber secretary for the new Volunteer Recognition Program.

Chamber mandate

Elk Point's Chamber of Commerce needs a specific mandate, says President Murray Harper.

Harper says he has repeatedly been "met on the street and asked what the Chamber is doing," and has been stumped for an answer. "It must be more than tourism and business promotions," he noted, but no one seems to know exactly what the function of the Chamber is.

The mandate must come from the membership, Harper said. "What do you want it to be?" He would also like to find out what roles the Alberta and Canadian Chambers could play on a local basis.

It was suggested that as a starting point, each Chamber committee should get together to plan goals for the coming year, as this has not been done on a regular basis. These goals could then be listed to form part of the mandate. Some committee members noted a difficulty in being absent from their jobs to attend to committee business, while others who have been on the executive for some time noted a problem with "burnout" and suggested new blood for the organization.

All in attendance at last week's meeting were in agreement with Harper's admonition that the Chamber start working together to strengthen the organization, and not to "just go half way."

Win, loss for Elks

Elks Hockey activity during the past week included a 13-5 win over Kikino Sabres and a 8-1 loss to the Cold Lake Packers, both in away games.

The high scoring game against Kikino saw six Elks goals in the first period, including three in a row for Ken Langdone, in the space of under seven minutes. Langdone scored a fourth goal in the third period.

Vic Stepa scored a hat trick, neatly spaced at one goal per period, including the Elk's lone second period goal. Ernie Poulin scored a pair in the 5 goal third period. Single goals came from Kerry Loughran, Clayton Cross and Willie Lesyk.

Assists were by Ernie Poulin, with a total of six, three by Kerry Loughran, two each by Bert Meger and Kevin Bjornstad, and one each by Allan Loughran, Vic Stepa and Willie Lesyk.

The Kikino game was a lively one, with 13 penalties, including a game misconduct for Kerry Loughran for the Elks and 18 penalties including two game misconducts, for the Sabres.

Thursday's disastrous contest with Cold Lake saw far fewer penalties, with only seven per team, including one 10 minute misconduct for Cold Lake.

Packers captain Dave Mansell scored five of his team's eight goals, with Martin Galvin, Brad Luchsinger and Guy Bruyere scoring one apiece.

The lone Elk Point goal was scored by Kerry Loughran off an assist by Vic Stepa at the 10:51 mark of the second period.

The Elks will be back on home ice Friday night, for a contest against the Kehewin Voyageurs. We hope Friday, the 13th will be all good luck for you, boys!

No subscription needed --except out of area

Due to a last minute change of plans, you will not, after all, need a subscription in order to continue receiving the Lakeland Review each week.

All those who have found an issue of the Review in their mailbox each week will continue to do so, with the area receiving the paper at no cost growing in the New Year.

Plans for a municipal contract with the Town of Elk Point were shelved recently, as further study brought out unplanned postal problems. At that time, it was decided to revert to an advertiser-pays basis.

The Review will also be available at news stands in Elk Point, St. Paul, and other areas.

Gift Subscriptions? Well they ARE priced at $30 — but when you consider that you won't have to buy one for yourself now, plus the facts that you won't have to wrap a present and pay postage to mail it, that isn't all that bad.

Don't forget — it's a gift that keeps on giving all year, after the chocolates are eaten, the socks worn out, and the neckties hidden in a drawer.

End of postal rope

It is one thing to be one person on a waiting list for a mail box at the local post office. When you are a business which must have a postal address to exist, and you are #145 on the waiting list, it's another thing entirely.

And think of it from the postal employee's point of view: crowded working conditions, and all those pieces of mail to shuffle through each time a General Delivery customer appears at the wicket.

We have had enough of waiting patiently for the postal department to honor the commitment they made in 1979. It is time for action.

Write to your Member of Parliament. If he finds he has enough of us behind him, he will have just that much more ammunition for the fight for enlarged postal facilities in Elk Point.

It is the end of the rope.

A five year wait for a post office box, which means you will be standing in line to get your mail from General Delivery for sixty endless months, and be unable to pick up the mail in the evening or on weekends, is a far from pleasant thought.

Largess of Canada Post

By Irene Magnusson

It finally came to my attention, after I'd mailed some forty Christmas cards — complete with whatever greeting I felt like adding, that I was using the special "Christmas" stamps, issued by the Post Office to be used on Christmas mail, for the very generous deduction of 2 cents, sold at 32¢, PROVIDED we only added five words of greeting.

Now I had not noticed that these were anything special. Around this time of the year, there is much to do and think of without checking every little thing. So that one slipped by. lect this postage from the persons to whom they were mailed, charging them a double shot — well, what should we do?

However, I have NEVER sent anyone a Christmas card with five words or less of greeting hand-written inside it. I think that would be an insult, and I certainly wouldn't waste 32¢ to do it. Nor, I'm sure, would most of you.

Now, if a nosey Canada Post sees fit to open my envelopes, count the words, and then return them to me because there are 15 or 100 words in there, I will be getting back some 65 envelopes marked "insufficient postage" — or worse yet, if they dare to col-

Suffice it to say, it will be the very last Christmas card mailing I will ever do. And I will cut down my letter-writing drastically, too. The phone company may be expensive, but they are at least not quite so sneaky.

Had those Special Christmas card stamps been purple, and cost about 15¢, I could see some sense to it. But to make them all look alike, and then cut the price by a measly two cents, is absurd.

Skate-A-Thon best ever

Elk Point Figure Skating Club reported that last Sunday's Skate-A-Thon drew the best response ever, both in pledges and in the number of skaters taking part.

Several new events were part of this year's program, including two Oilmen's Challenges and a mystery skater event.

The oil company representative raising the most money was Brad Gardner of Amoco, who brought in a whopping $1079 in pledges, and was presented with a handsome trophy. The oilman skating the most laps was Don Cameron, who circled the rink fifty times to earn both a large challenge trophy for his company and a personal trophy.

The mystery event involved costumed skaters, backed by pledges from generous donors who had no idea of the skating ability of their chosen individual. Inside the winner's colorful costume was Doris Ludlage, who took home the trophy.

A good number of youngsters took part in the event. In the 4 to 6 year old group, Dannel Anderson took the most Laps-Girls award with 29 laps, while Neil Kozicky skated 34 laps for the equivalent boys' award.

Elizabeth Ludlage skated 51 laps and Jeff Lypka 45 laps in the 7 to 10 year old group, while Cindy Smith with 39 laps and Shane Smith with 52 laps topped the 11 to 14 year old group for the most Laps awards in those categories.

The skaters bringing in the most money per lap in the youth events were Tiny Callie Baumgardner and Shane Smith. Pamela Myshaniuk brought in the most money overall, a total of $235, in the youth events.

The youngest skater in the skate-a-thon was BJ Ballas.

Challenge events for service clubs, sports clubs and between the rival Figure Skating and Minor Hockey groups proved popular. Alvina Schuhmacher of Poulin of the Elks Hockey Club topped the Sports Clubs and over the Minor Hockey Katherina Ludlage of the Figure competitors.

FUND RAISING OILMEN — Brad Gardner of Amoco accepts his trophy from Wayne Smith.

MOST LAPS — In the Oilmen's Challenge were skated by Don Cameron, receiving trophies from Sharil Baumgardner and Wayne Smith.

Elk Point U.C.W. hold fall bazaar

By Irene Magnusson

Saturday, Nov. 30th was the day chosen by the Elk Point United Church Women to hold their annual Tea, Bazaar and Bake Sale, and as usual, when the doors opened to the public, the tables were groaning under their load.

That such a small group in numbers (there are fifteen active members) can generate such a wealth of articles donated for sale, has to prove something. The bake table was literally heaped with all the delectable home-baked goodies imaginable. The Crafts and Novelty table, a long one, carried such numerous creations I couldn't begin to name them all. There were quilts, cushions, mitts and slippers; dolls, toys, potholders and ornaments. And so many more. Christmas decorations were in evidence, and you could tell needles have been flashing for months.

Near the door, the U.C.W. Heritage Book table was sold out, next to that the U.C. Junior Girl's group "Explorers" sold Christmas crafts. A model church about 18 inches high, created from cookies, icing, and candies by Billie Lynn Milholland, was displayed. Marlene McCowan guessed the closest to the number of cookies used, and won the munchie church, later donating it back to the young church people.

The Tea tables were soon filled and did a brisk business all afternoon, as customers visited and rested between their shopping. Mrs. Irene Miller, U.C.W. member, reported that the day had "gone well" and thanks all the ladies who helped to make the affair a success, both members and non-members. The proceeds are put to good use, going to needy groups and for up-keep of the church. At present there is no President, but a meeting will be called to decide that soon. Grace Pinder is the secretary.

In charge of the Tea tables were Gladys Sheploway and Grace Pinder; Bake sale, Grace Barwick, Barbara Milholland and Irene Lindquist, while the busy Crafts and Novelty section was looked after by Buzzy Pelechovsky, Muriel Holthe, Ann Buck and Violet McFadyen. Many others helped with preparing, serving and clean-up work, all much appreciated by the U.C.W.

THE BEST DRESSED WINDOW — In Elk Point is the aim of Beryl Brett of Gerry's Clothing, which moved to their bright new Centre Point Mall location last week.

Energy Information Centre

We have a speaker for you! Does your volunteer group or civic organization need an interesting speaker for its next monthly meeting? I have recently received a list of energy-related speaker contacts. If your group has an interest in energy issues related to agriculture, the environment, transportation, or economic development, I may be able to arrange for a speaker. I can be contacted at the Energy Information Centre (724-3130) or, if you wish to visit, I am at the Centre on Mondays from 7 - 9 a.m. and Thursdays from 2 - 5 p.m.. Otherwise, please contact me at my home, 724-3601, in Elk Point.

SCHOOL VISITS: During the past several weeks, I have been visiting school principals in the Lindbergh Area explaining the information resources available at the Centre. I took with me copies of ERCB's Enerfax series; Energizers — an energy activity puzzle book for the young, and the young at heart; and Energy Alberta - '85 - the ERCB's annual review of Alberta's energy resources. The school principals seemed to appreciate my visit, and I am looking forward to assisting them, and their teaching staffs, with classroom needs for energy information.

ENERGY INFORMATION CATALOGUE: In late November, the president of a local community group requested a list of all the energy information materials currently available at the Centre. Suddenly it became obvious that we had forgotten something. We didn't have such a list! I decided that the best way to catalogue these materials was to use my home computer. I expect that this project will take the month of December to complete. Contact me if you would like to receive a copy of the catalogue, and any updates. I hope to have it approved and ready for distribution by mid-January.

DEMAND

Electric energy can't be stored — it must be used the instant it is generated. Electric utilities must be prepared to generate and distribute sufficient electricity to meet the demands of customers at all times.

The time of maximum electric consumption is referred to as the "peak load." The period of peak demand generally occurs on cold winter days between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m., when most families are preparing dinner and turning on lights. This increase in the use of electricity creates a high demand which must be met by electric utilities.

By restricting your electric use during the "peak load" period, electric demand will decrease, the load on the electric system will be lessened and the need for additional electric facilities may be delayed.

Winter games feature all Olympic sports

In a grassroots, provincial equivalent of the 1988 Winter Olympic Games in Edson, close to 3,000 athletes are to compete in the 1986 Alberta Winter Games February 26 — March 2 in Edson. For the first time in Alberta history, the Games are to feature competition in all 10 Olympic winter sports and are to take place on some of the finest facilities in North America.

"The Games are a crucial and necessary base and first step to stream athletes for the Olympic Games many years in the future," says Roger Jackson, president of the Canadian Olympic Association. "It's an extraordinarily good development program and it'll tie in nicely with provincial and national team training on facilities that will remain."

The legacy to remain after Edson is remarkable.

The 2.4 kilometre luge run is the longest in North America and has already been used for one national championship.

The 30 and 50 metre ski jumps are up to such a caliber that both the U.S. and Canadian national teams used them for training last year. They are built to international specifications and are two of the most modern in the world.

The 200 metre, permanent outdoor speed skating oval is one of only four in the province.

The biathlon circuit was used last year for the provincial championships.

"It's in the back of our minds that Edson could be a provincial training centre for Olympic winter sports in the future," says Jim Foggatt, 41, of Edson, director of sports for the Games. "But we've been racing around so much with preparations, we haven't had time to put much stock in the idea. Still, we'd like to see it happen."

Other Olympic winter sports featured at the Games are figure skating, hockey, cross-country skiing, bobsleigh and alpine skiing. In all, 22 sports are to be featured, including some not normally associated with winter — like volleyball and table tennis. There will also be cultural events such as Theatresports (improvisational drama), ice and snow sculptures and playwriting competitions.

Qualifying competitions in all events are now in progress throughout Alberta.

The Games have a budget of over $600,000 and will require 2,000 volunteers.

Edson is about 200 kilometres west of Edmonton.

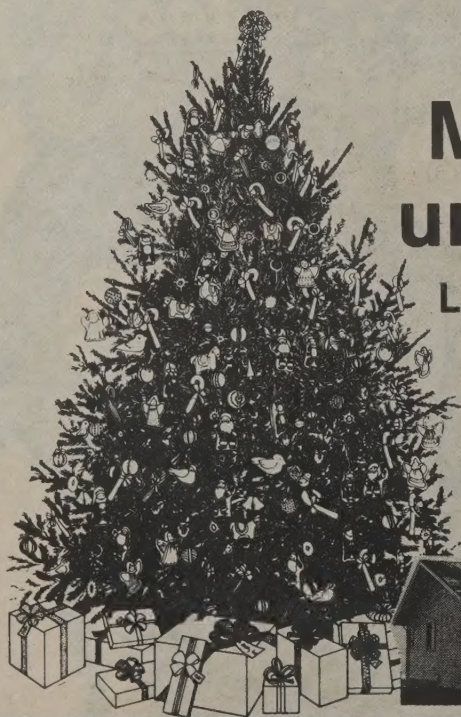

For more information contact your local recreation department or the Zone 7 office of the Alberta Sport Council at 875-5506, Ext. 34.

Lakeland tourism study interim report

By Irene Magnusson

Part One

Ed Romanowski of Roman Consulting Services was in Bonnyville to hear further suggestions on improving Tourism in the Lakeland, and to give an interim report on his findings so far. November 28th was the day, and three members of the Elk Point C. of C. went to Bonnyville to hear the report.

Ronald Barwick, representing the Lakeland Tourist Assoc., and Sid Holthe and myself, both representing the Historical Society, arrived about 7:30 p.m., to hear the firm's presentation. A summary — as I hear it — follows:

The Consulting firm has been engaged to study the Tourism industry in the Lakeland Zone 7. To do this, they talked with many interested persons all over the area. They have studied what we have given him: the inventory of what is available; the market (who our tourists will be, and where from); what do people want, he asked — some talked, some had written briefs, he had talked to over 500 people, asking what their concerns and interests were.

Conclusions so far are: Attractions — events, activities, tours — fair; Food Services — good; Infrastructure — roads, facilities — good; Organization — plans, marketing — not great; Human and Financial resources — even less great, showing poor attitudes, lack of investments, poor attitudes toward loans, customer serving poor, poor weather, short seasons.

Low membership fees were noted, and suggested that businesses could afford up to $150 annual fees to tourism. Selfishness was evident, with each area only wanting to promote 'its own thing'. Some of the major attractions were mentioned (cruise missiles, oil sands, Vegreville's pysanky, etc.). To promote, there must be investment.

A few of the projects suggested were: rental equipment (skis, boats, etc.); meeting facilities (not large, or use what we have more); river tours; native culture; auto guided tours; brochures; 'eco' tours; historical themes. Other ideas were: dude ranches; farm vacations; cabins and cottages available.

Brochures should be factual, professional, with dollars spent on advertising, and promotion. Improve existing attractions, with clean-ups, upgrading, and lots of pride, encouraging the whole community to enter into the spirit.

It was suggested that it is better to have a few GOOD things than a lot of mediocre things; events should be coordinated with other areas. Businesses must work together.

We have a vast wilderness, and could open it up to tours, packages for those who would see it, to show off the best. Advertise.

Elk Point is in Area 3 of the Lakeland, and it is suggested we not worry about the rest, but concentrate on what we have to offer. (Area 3 also includes Cold Lake, Lac La Biche, Bonnyville, St. Paul and south to the N. Sask. River). There should be more concentration on private enterprise, rather than relying on governments for too much.

A list of suggestions offered for increasing tourism in Area 3 (Elk Point and surrounds) by Roman Consulting includes the following: we need to increase services for equipment for tourists; we should charge for use of campsites; seniors should pay, also; we could try youth hostels.

Other suggestions are: Full service campgrounds around lakes; development of wider variety of accommodations (hostels, cabin rentals, dude ranches); tours and rentals for sport fishing; guided tours to visit attractions; trails and facilities for summer and winter attractions (for snowmobiles, ATV's); develop resort facilities at Cold Lake; develop lakefront access and facilities.

Ft. George and Buckingham House historic sites could be developed; more use of interpretive signage, trails and brochures, to tell of our historic sites (which needn't be costly, but should be well done).

More attention should be given to our environment. We are destroying what we have. Fishing is getting less rewarding, smaller, fewer, possibly due to over-fishing. Season could be closed during spawning months (April & May) to allow recuperation. We are urged to not expect the government to do everything for us; do it ourselves, such as cleaning up. Roads are different, government must do this. Tourists hate bad roads, and tell others if they encounter them. We need some GOOD roads right away. Road signs could be improved, especially the 'trails' such as the Athabasca Trail. (Who knows where the old St. Paul road used to go?)

We need to identify our market, in our case Edmonton seems to be the largest, and aim our advertising to them. We should spend our advertising money where it will get the best results. We should also remember that everyone who comes into our area is a tourist — workers, business people, visitors — all. We should give them all the help we possibly can, lots of information, readily available, and try to supply the goods and services they need.

Service workers need more training on how to SERVE, and better management will play a big part. ALWAYS give the American dollar fair exchange — plus a smile. The visitor you insult or neglect can lose up to 250 others. None of us keep quiet when we feel we've been wronged. We tell others.

There were other suggestions. But to sum up, I gathered these bits as being of importance. First, not everything is feasible. We could be optimistic, not pessimistic in outlook — for instance, tell visitors to dress for the weather, not just that it's cold — or hot. Winter can be enjoyed if we prepare for it.

Be forward-looking! Think about changes; what can be done NOW? Be competitive.

We need leadership, change, co-operation. We need to get involved. We could try to attract younger persons, let them make mistakes. They'll learn. We have to set priorities.

Don't think back to the good old days too much, but ahead to the good new days. And remember, in our community as elsewhere, the Lord helps those who help themselves.

There will be a concluding report on the Destination Study later. Meanwhile, we have something to think about.

Lioness Santa pancake brunch

By Karen Reed
Lioness President

With the Festive season well on its way, the Elk Point & District Lioness Club has made plans for Santa's visit to their Pancake Brunch on Dec. 14th, Saturday from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the United Church. Also the Lions sleigh ride will be leaving the United Church (weather permitting) during these times. As a special treat, the Lioness will have a puppet show at 12:30. And of course, Santa will be there for all the girls and boys.

What more could the Lioness ask for to thank everyone for such a successful 1985!

To the town for giving us the project of developing Markstad Park, and who not only supplied a lot of manual labor to prepare the grounds for a face lift but gave a generous donation. To the Elk Point & District Lions Club for their continual support and a large donation to Markstad Park. And of course, to the people of Elk Point, who cheerfully supported all our projects throughout the year and made our first Ladies Night Out a huge success. We shall continue to develop the park next year and are looking forward to new projects to strive for. A service club can not survive on service alone, but with the support and gratitude the people of Elk Point and area have given us, we can only look ahead to enjoy serving you in 1986.

So to everyone, join us at the Santa's Pancake Brunch on Sat.

Dec. 14th at the United Church, and we will wish you the Merriest Christmas and a prosperous New Year!

Dewberry News Roundup

By Cliff Cunningham
Dewberry Correspondent

The Dewberry Senior Citizens monthly potluck supper was held on Wednesday, Nov. 27th with only twenty three turning out. It was such a cold night with a light snow most of the one's from out of town stayed at home.

Loyal Krawchuk, who lived in Dewberry for a good many years, was married on Nov. 9th and Floyd and Lill Sweet are holding an open house party for him and his wife Sylvia on Dec. 8th from 1:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. at their house in Vermilion. I never heard what Sylvia's maiden name was. We all wish you many happy years of married life, Sylvia and Loyal.

On the evening of November 25th the Elk Point Elks hockey team came to Dewberry and played a game with the Dewberry Mustangs. Final score Elk Point 1, Dewberry 15. On Saturday, Nov. 30th Dewberry Mites hockey team tied with Bonnyville 3-3.

The Dewberry fall harvest fun spiel Dine and Dance was a real success with several teams taking part in the curling spiel. I never got the names of the winning teams. The Dine and Dance in the hall drew a large crowd also with a very nice supper of Kentucky Fried Chicken and all the trimmings. After supper there were several draws made and some fifty dollar cheques handed out. Your news reporter received a fifty dollar cheque made out by B & C Trucking. I did not have my notebook with me, but was told that a write-up will be given to me for next week's news. The dance music was supplied by Rick Rewuski with tape and records on his P.A. system.

The Christmas supper at the Senior Citizens Drop-In Centre will be December 11th with the Lions L. ladies catering. There is also a potluck supper at the United Church Dec. 6th with a program of Christmas songs, etc. The ladies Birthday Club party will be at Marge Cunningham's on Thursday, Dec. 12th.

Our weather has been cold for the last two weeks, Low 32 below F, and high zero F.

Happy Birthday to all that had a birthday in the month of November. Let's hope December is a warmer month than November was.

Ervin Garnier is home now after being in the Lloydminster Hospital and the University Hospital in Edmonton.

Recreation Corner

By Linda Simpson
Recreation Director

The Christmas rush is on! Everyone I've spoken to seems to be up to their armpits in gift wrapping, card sending, and shopping. The Farmer's Almanac recognizes there's "one thing about Christmas shopping — it toughens you up for the January sales."

Even the Recreation Office is busy with new programs such as gymnastics, badminton, and Army Cadets; year end duties; master planning; and preparation for the N.E.A.R.A. Winter Games. But we are never too busy for new ideas or your visits.

NORTH EASTERN ALBERTA RECREATION ASSOCIATION WINTER GAMES: February 7th to 9th marks the 1986 Regional Winter Games to be held in Bonnyville. Sporting competitions will include everything from Alpine Skiing and Figure Skating to Curling, Basketball, and Badminton. All that is needed now is some participation from Elk Point and District. If you are interested in competing or volunteering for the Games, please phone the Recreation Office at 724-4074. I can answer your questions... I think.

GYMNASTICS: Believe it or not!?! Elk Point Elementary School will be the meeting place of our first gymnastics program. Everything gets underway on January 23rd. The program will run Thursdays at 4:30 to 7:00 p.m. until March 27, 1986. This time period will be broken up to accommodate three age groups of children. Schedules and fees will run as follows:

- 4 to 6 year olds — 4:30 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. - $10 for 10 sessions.
- 7 to 8 year olds — 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. - $15 for 10 sessions.
- 9 to 12 year olds — 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m. - $15 for 10 sessions.

The Recreation Office is taking formal registration now! All fees must be paid in advance of the program, so drop by and register your child NOW!

GYMNASTICS LEVEL I TECHNICAL CLINIC: Unfortunately, this clinic which was to be held on December 6th to 9th has been rescheduled for January 24th to 26th. So it's not too late to get involved. Phone 724-4074 to register.

ADULT BADMINTON: this program is scheduled to run on Thursdays at 8:30 p.m. at the Community Services Centre commencing tomorrow. If there is a good turnout we may move it to the High School on subsequent nights. There's no need to register in advance, just show up ready to play. Bring your own racquet.

ARMY CADETS: If you or your child is interested in Army Cadets, please attend an organizational meeting to be held on December 17th, 7:00 p.m. at the Community Services Center-Further Education Classroom.

Good Luck with your Christmas preparations! Have a good week!

4-H Mardi Gras well attended

By Elena Drobot
Club Reporter

The St. Paul District held a Mardi Gras on December 1st at Goodridge Hall from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.. There were over twenty-five people from the three Elk Point clubs.

The afternoon was spent playing competitive games. Eight member teams and two parents teams participated. A few of the games included the Orange Pass, Whistling Contest, Skin-the-Snake, and the Nine Legged race.

Gold, silver and bronze medallions were presented to the three top teams and a skunk medallion went to the team with the least points.

Gold medal winners were Peter Gisle, Gerard Dechaine, Corey Vogel, Aime Michaud, Darren Premak, Gisele Michaud, Lawrence Kwiatkowski, Peter Smyl, Anita Michaud and Kevin Wirsta.

The Silver Medallions were won by Rayelle Aarbo, Janice Niedzielski, Tanya Stone, Paul Michaud, Paul Ringuette, Ginette Fontaine, Dwayne Vogel and Randy Black.

The winners of the bronze medallions were Michelle Theriault, Loreen Aarbo, Monique Michaud, Martin Iversen, Denis Dallaire, Elena Drobot, Dale Niedzielski, and Robert Tymofichuk.

The last place team received skunk medallions. These went to Theresa Purificati, Karen Iversen, Michael Yuschyshyn, Leslie Iversen, Doris Dechaine, Lisa Niedzielski, Melody Hagen, Roxi Aarbo and Mike Zukiwski.

Special thanks goes out to the organizers led by Colleen Wengzynowski, for a very interesting and enjoyable day. Thank you also to the Goodridge club and their helpers for a delicious, reasonably priced lunch.

4-H Christmas party great success

By Elena Drobot
Club Reporter

The three Elk Point 4-H clubs had their Christmas party on December 8th at Armistice Hall.

For the first time in at least three years the weather man cooperated with us and sent us a nice day for tobogganing. Most of the 4-H'ers tobogganed, slid or whatever they had to, to get to the bottom of the hill. The brave ones walked right back up while the others rode back up with Mr. Orr. Thank you, I'm sure many people would have quit much sooner if you had not been there. Other members and most parents visited, played games or cards in the hall. They don't know what they missed. Later we all went in to snack on oranges and candy donated by Westmin Resources. Thanks, they were delicious. We then sang Christmas carols and guess who dropped in? Santa almost didn't come as no one could get past the first line of "Here comes Santa Claus". He finally settled for the second rendition of Jingle Bells! Santa handed out Christmas gifts and the disappeared, back to the North Pole... or Elk Point... we're not sure.

The mothers brought a delicious potluck supper which we enjoyed at about 4:30 p.m.. After supper some of us went back tobogganing again and soon after that everyone went home.

Thanks again to Westmin Resources, Mr. Orr and Santa as well as all the other people involved in making our Christmas party an enjoyable one.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to Everyone.
